RESEARCH CONTRIBUTIONS & METHODOLOGY

Research / Independent Research (Work in Progress)
"Air Freight Pricing and Network Reconfiguration Under Geopolitical Disruptions: Evidence from International Air Cargo Corridors"

- Multi Carrier Data Panel Dataset
  Constructed a corridor-level panel dataset integrating air cargo tariff schemes from major international carriers (Avianca, Aeromexico, Saudi Airlines, and Garuda Indonesia)
- Geopolitical Shock Indexing
  Analysed price variance and yield shifts across tier-based weight breaks (min to 1000kgs) to quantify the immediate market impact of geopolitical disruptions on freight rates.
- Network and Gateway Relocation
  Evaluated strategic routing adjustments and capacity realignments, tracking operational shifts between narrow-body, wide-body, and freighter configurations, as well as transit hub dependencies (Middle East gateways)
- Econometric Pricing Models

Applied panel fixed-effects and instrumental variable models to estimate price elasticity, ancillary fee structure (CCC/FHL, DGR) and strict capacity constraints during wartime supply chain shocks.

"Network Governance in Emerging Market Logistics Firms Expanding into Institutionally Distant Markets"

- Qualitative interviews and case-based design
- Data access established
